Anderson Featured In Band Concert Tonight at 8:00

THE COLLEGE BAND WILL present a formal concert today April 6, at 8:00 p.m. in the college auditorium.

The program, under the direction of Earle Moss, will feature Victor Anderson, trumpet soloist, in Hadyn's "Concerto for Trumpet." The Haydn trumpet concerto, which heads the list of works for trumpet is also considered to be the best concerto to come from that composer's pen. Originally written for the antique clarino, the performance of the concerto on the modern trumpet requires great endurance and mastery of the high register.

Other numbers include: "Athletic Festival March" by Prokofieff, "Folk Song Suite" (See "Concert", Page 2)

Bruce Wake Receives Nationwide Notoriety

45-Mile Marathon Publicizes SGA Winners

IT WAS A TIRED BRUCE WAKE THAT plodded steadily up Fourth street and turned into the college drive March 24.

The 5' 7", 155 pound senior was covering the last few feet of a 45-mile marathon from St. Joseph to Maryville, two letters from Mayor Arthur Meers of St. Joe tucked inside the pocket of his sweatshirt.

As he rounded the final curve and came to a halt amidst the cheering throng in front of the administration building, with the unprecedented sound of the college victory bell in the background, the four-year track letterman brought to a climax one of the most unusual publicity stunts ever seen at NWMSC.

The twelve-hour run was given nation-wide news coverage, publicized the names of Dale Cramer and Roger Blackwell, eventual winners of the Student Senate presidential and vice-presidential positions and dropped Bruce's weight by five pounds.

SUBSISTING ON A DIET OF HONEY, Bruce began his trek shortly after midnight and covered the first eleven miles in less than ninety minutes. Ahead of schedule when he reached Midway, the veteran distance runner took an hour's rest.

He was running strongly again when he reached Pumpkin Center and was met by a 24 degree temperature and 20 mph head winds. He was given a medical checkup (See "Marathon", Page 3)

A BASEBALL GAME WITH Graceland College as well as tennis matches have been planned for the afternoon.

"The scheduled events should hold something of interest for everyone," Dr. Grube said, "and it is hoped that all students will encourage their parents to visit the campus during this time."

Book Lost

A book belonging to the Rev. Howard Judah, Clergyman at the First Baptist Church of Maryville, has been lost. Rev. Judah reports that the book, titled "Christianity and Reason" was apparently displaced after being on display during Religious Emphasis Week.

Votes Made by Cash Contributions

Students, Faculty Vieing for Student Loan Fund Ugly Man

BEAUTY CONTESTS ARE fine but it's an Ugly Man that's being selected during the Alpha Phi Omega sponsored fund raising contest today through Friday.

Voting is being done by monetary contributions and the proceeds will be given to the Student Loan Fund to be used in the National Defense Loan program. Seven faculty and seven students are vieing for the dubious honor.

Included in the faculty division are President Jones, Dr. Sterling Surrey, Dr. John Harr, Dr. Berndt Angman, Mr. Miles Grabau, Coach Ryland Milner and Mr. Everett Brown. The seven candidates for the student division have been nominated by both Greek and independent organizations.

WINNERS IN EACH division will receive a key and a plaque will be given to the organization sponsoring the winning student candidate.

"We hope everyone will vote as often and for as many candidates as they can," Bruce Wake, APO president said. "This way we can aid as many students as possible. If each student contributes $1.00, the college can match $15,000 in federal funds under the NDL program."

This year 480 students were aided by National Defense and Student Loan funds.

Question: If you had the power, what one thing would you do?

Ron Guthrey, Freshman, Atchison, Kansas

I would declare world peace and set up a plan for peaceful coexistence between nations that lead to a united world.

Barbara Flynn, Sophomore, Shenandoah, Iowa

I would bring peace throughout the world for the coming Easter season. This would make the world a much better place to live.

Ruth Ann Jestes, Junior, Union Star, Missouri

If I had the power, I would make our leaders and our nation Christian in its decisions and actions.

Darrell Templeton, Freshman, Corning, Iowa

If I had the power I would abolish the electoral college and have a popular vote. This would be a much fairer system than is present now.

Marguerite Donaldson, Freshman, Stanberry, Missouri

If I had the power, I would see the abolishment of mid-terms and finals, classes and term papers.

Dale Hunziger, Freshman, Oregon, Missouri

If I had the power, I would try to promote world peace, from which everyone one of us could benefit.

Paula Osborne, Freshman, Sheridan, Missouri

If, I had the power, I would make this a more peaceful world. It is too bad that there is so much strife in this world today.

Bob Renner, Freshman, Rock Port, Missouri

If I had the power, I would probably do like any other white corpuscle tyrant would do. I'd run the whole works and in that way get rid of the problems of the state.

WITH SPRING UPON US, MID-TERMS OVER, AND THE election season nearing an end, the Stroller leaned back to relax only to hear a stodgy old professor exclaim, "Seven more weeks until term papers are due."

The Stroller was afraid this column would not appear when he found himself almost stomped during the election week rush. Now he finds there is more to come with one of the more important offices on campus still to be selected.

He had to dodge again when he saw Bruce Wake round the corner and was swept up in the throng but he enjoyed the reception, especially that of Karen Mast. The Stroller says he'll try a run from K. C. if a few freshman girls will volunteer for the welcoming committee.

A LOT OF PEOPLE WERE

betting both ways on the outcome of the marathon, but the Stroller has observed that people who stand around saying it can't be done are usually interrupted by people doing it. The whole campaign turned out to be more fun than walking past Freshman Hall at night.

And at least one achievement has come out of the election. The Stroller understands that a new sorority, "Outcasts, Inc." has been organized with Gaye Laughery and Anne Newcomer as President and V. P.

All mudslinging is not confined to campaigns, though, as a couple of freshmen will testify. And the Stroller's big ears heard that the boys who did it won't try anything like that again.

The Stroller thinks that an investigating committee should be appointed to check the rumor that Kay Cornick and Doyle Thomas are going to merge interests and corner the market on the campus black market food supply. And now the Stroller must dash to enter the Ugly Man contest.

Is it ever Ivy! Why, Coke is the most correct beverage you can possibly order on campus. Just look around you. What are the college social leaders going for? Coca-Cola! So take a leaf out of their Ivy League book and do the same! Enjoy the good taste of Coke!

Old man winter has kept the NWMSC athletic teams from doing the spring look.

The first outdoor track meet was cancelled when Coach Turner was unable to find enough snowshoes to outfit the Bearcats. Except for the MIAA indoor meet at Columbia, Turner's charges have had no chance to practice under meet circumstances.

Due to the fact that half of the baseball team are poor swimmers, the Bearcat hardball crew has been forced to limit its practice session to the gymnasium. Coach Moss has been unable to get a good look at his whole team because of the weather, and may have to go on past performances when he chooses his lineup for the clash with Rockhurst College in Kansas City tomorrow afternoon. The first home game will be April 14, with the Graceland College Yellowjackets.

Bearcat netmen have been confined to their lonely, dark corner of the gymnasium for the past few weeks, and, if they get outside before the middle of April without the use of water skis, this writer will be greatly surprised.

For the second season in a row, the cry of "Fore" will again be absent from the campus of NWMSC. Many students have expressed a desire to participate in the sport of golf if an agreement could be worked out with local country club officials.

From the enthusiasm shown in the recent student body elections, this writer is wondering if the student body supports their athletic teams with half as much spirit and enthusiasm.
